New! Activities in The Green-House at Green-Wood

Add an activity in the Green-House to any Graveside History or Art History Trolley Program, or our Biodiversity in Bloom Trolley Program.

Each hands-on activity lets students create something to encapsulate their learning to take home.

Graveside History

Students visit the graves of Green-Wood's most fascinating "permanent residents," our most poignant memorials, and even a 1776 battlefield. Programs include small group work and discussion. All programs are for Grades 4 and up, unless otherwise noted.

- Black History at Green-Wood
- Women's History at Green-Wood
- The American Revolution at Green-Wood
- Lives of the Civil War at Green-Wood
- LGBTQ+ History at Green-Wood
- Innovators and Activists of Green-Wood
- Immigration History at Green-Wood (Grades 2 and up)

Art in the Cemetery

Green-Wood has more than 200,000 works of outdoor sculpture, installations by world-famous artists, and architectural masterpieces for your students to discover.

- Wondrous Windows: Stained Glass at Green-Wood* (Grades 3K-5)
- Marvelous Monuments* (Grades K and up)
- Stories in Stone (Grades 2 and up)
- Architecture of the Afterlife (Grades 4 and up)

FREE PROGRAMS AVAILABLE!

A limited number of free American Revolution at Green-Wood programs are available for NYC public schools thanks to Brooklyn 250 funding, championed by State Senator Andrew Gounardes, Assemblymember Robert Carroll, and Assemblymember Jo Anne Simon.

Public schools located within the 44th Assembly district of New York, represented by Assemblymember Robert Carroll, or the 52nd Assembly district, represented by Assemblymember Jo Anne Simon, and the 26th Senate District, represented by Senator Andrew Gounardes, qualify for a limited number of free programs.

Not in those districts? You may still qualify for free environmental education programs available through Dec 31 2026 thanks to support from The Lotos Foundation.
