AT THE GREEN-HOUSE

Just across the street from Green-Wood's iconic Main Entrance, the Green-House pairs the restored 1895 Victorian Weir Greenhouse with contemporary architecture. Part of The Green-Wood Cemetery, a National Historic Landmark founded in 1838, this distinctive Brooklyn venue offers a light-filled, versatile setting for weddings, memorials, corporate events, and private celebrations.

- Restored 1895 Weir Greenhouse (1,700 sq. ft.) paired with a new 2,000 sq. ft. gallery space, catering kitchen, and full amenities.
- Designed by Architecture Research Office, an award-winning firm, with exhibition galleries by C&G Partners.
- Located near the Main Entrance at 25th Street and Fifth Avenue, within one of Brooklyn's most storied and visually distinctive landscapes.
- 1913 Neo-Gothic Historic Chapel inside the Cemetery available as an add-on.
